FAKE SCHEMES

Manufacturers' Association Insists That Goods Shall be Sold on Merit.

MUST HAVE AN ENDORSEMENT

Ladies' Auxiliary Now Ready for Effeetive Work-Letters From Los Angeles.

A fight on fakirs seems to be necessary these days in every line of American enterprise, and the Salt Lake merchants have one on their hands. It is directed against fake advertising, and has been forming for the past two weeks among local business men. At its inception the "News" exclusively told of the plan, which it is now proposed to adopt at a meeting - the Manufacturers and Merchants association to be held Tuesday evening

Since investigation of the matter be-gan many merchants have expressed themselves as disgusted with the fake schemes brought to their attention by advertising agents who come a day and are gone with their harvest. They have to waste hours per day listening to schemes, and investigating their merits. Then one merchant is assured he is the only one holding out and this he is the only one holding out and this leverage is used against him. The plan proposed to do away with undesirable advertising, and to shut the doors of the business houses against the agent who has nothing good to offer, is to compel every agent to secure an endorsement from the executive committee of the Manufacturers and Merchants' association before his scheme will receive attention, this endorsement will receive attention, this endorsement merely securing him a hearing, and guaranteeing him nothing more.

The manufacturers in the matter have ealized another thing, in this connecrealized another thing, in this connection. It is that strong newspapers make a strong community, and that the newspaper which is strong not only profits for itself, but carries whatever message it has to carry to a larger percentage of the people, and is therefore more useful to the community which supports it. For this reason they think their advertising patronage belongs naturally to the newspapers which are working for the upbuilding of a sentiment in favor of home goods against imported goods, and newspaper adverimported goods, and newspaper advertising is excepted in the class which must be endorsed before it is listened

LADIES AT WORK.

The Ladies' Auxiliary are rapidly get-ting on a basis where definite results are expected from their work. They have telephones installed at their head-F. E. McGurrin has just bought from Thomas Quayle for $10,000 41\frac{1}{2}\times 181 feet on Third South street, near First West, with a view to improvement. Old buildings now stand on the property.

A meeting of all charitable and childs aving organizations of the city is scheduled for this afternoon in the juvenile court to consider matters pertaining to the work of the Boys' Betterment league.

The entertainment for the benefit of the famine sufferers in Japan, advertised to be given in the Eleventh ward Friday evening, Feb. 2, has been postponed for one week, and will be given in the Eleventh ward Friday evening, Feb. 2, has been postponed for one week, and will be given in the Eleventh ward Friday evening, Feb. 2, has been postponed for one week, and will be given in the Eleventh ward Friday evening. Feb. 2, has been postponed for one week, and will be given in the Keith-O'Brien store, writing tables, and a coffee and teal counter, it being the intention to make the place a headquarters for shoppers who wish to rest for a few minutes, write a letter home or look to the merits of home goods. Labels of the associating are expected in a few days, and then the work of deciding what goods are up to standard will be begun. State Chemist Harms will be called upon to analyze samples picked at random from stock, of all goods offered by home concerns, that need analysis, and if any are found impure, or of a pure grade, they will be so announced. Pamphlets containing lists of all that are really good, will be published and are really good, will be published and sent broadcast over the state. The signatures of membership in the association are piling up among the women, who are working with great women, who are working with great energy. State manufacturers who have goods to display are urged to send them in at once to the ladies auxiliary, so that the display can be completed this week.

LETTER FROM LOS ANGELES. In investigating the matter of adver-tising, as carried on in other cities, Manager Place wrote to the secretary of the Manufacturers and Merchants' association of Los Angeles, and received the following reply:

"Your request for information in regard to the handling by our association of all advertising schemes is gladly complied with.

FAKIRS IN PLENTY.

"For years this city has been the mecca to which all advertising fakirs turned their eyes and hundreds of advertising schemes of every character were submitted to our merchants for their support. Especially was this their support. true just prior to and during the tourist season, when dozens of souvenirs, guides, and schemes of that nature were launched by oily-tongued promo who promised a circulation of from 000 to 100,000, but in reality published a sufficient number to make a showing and collect from their dupes. The nuis-ance became so great that this associa-tion supplies all of its members with a notice reading as follows:

SIGN FOR OFFICES.

"'No request for donations or subscriptions will be entertained, nor advertisements placed in any but established publications unless written endorsement from the Manufacturers and Merchants' association has been ob-

"These notices were supplied to our members to be displayed in their of-fices and stores and the result has been almost magic. Hardly an advertising proposition is now worked in this city and I have not given an endorsemen to any during the last year and a half. In fact the situation is so well known among the schemers and fakirs that they no longer select Los Angeles as their place of operation,

FAKE CHARITIES

"In connection with this matter I may also suggest to you that your as-sociation adopt the same method toward so-called charitable institutions. An investigation made by our association of the institutions depending upon the or the institutions depending upon the public for their financial support proved that during the part year nearly $44,000 was contributed for the support of such institutions. We have adopted a system whereby every charitable and philanthropic institution that solicits funds from the public, must make ap-plication for endorsements before sub-scriptions can be secured from our merchants, and we investigate the scope of the work of each, its management, its necessity, its scope of usefulness and inquire whether such institution is run on business principles. If we find that the institution is conducted properly, and that there is a necessity for its existence in this particular field, an endorsement is given, stating the purpose and the period for which the money is to be used, and the amount needed o be used, and the amount needed.

A GREAT SAVING

"All subscriptions must be entered in one general book and when the amount required has been secured, the indorse-ment is returned to us and an inves-tigation made later of how the money has been expended. In this way a great deal of money can be saved to your members, worthy institutions will be protected, and unworthy or badly managed institutions will be forced to either change their methods or close their Hoping that this information may he of value to you and holding myself in readiness to assist you in any way, I am, "ours truly,"

The Grip.

The Grip.

"Be fore we can sympathize with others, we must have suffered ourselves." No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of the grip, unless he has had the actual experience. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger from the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy, not one case has ever been reported that has resulted in pneumonia or that has not recovered. For sale by all druggists.
